

Document Generated: 12/18/2025

Learning Style: On Demand

Technology: CSS

Difficulty: Beginner

Course Duration: 1 Hour

CSS Beginner

About this course:

This online course of one-hour is planned for beginners who need to figure out how to make proficient sites building upon the establishment information on HTML5. CSS is utilized to expand the formatting and elaborate capacities of your HTML archives, allowing more noteworthy control and flexibility in page layout and design. We take CSS from the earliest starting point and show all related to design, formatting, and navigation bars. In the wake of learning CSS and HTML, you'll have the option to fabricate a site without any preparation.

Regardless of whether you're a web engineer liable for a huge number of pages or an independent website specialist working on sites for local businesses, CSS is a significant ability to ace. CSS or Cascading Style Sheets furnishes web engineers and architects with the capacity to attractive appealing site pages. This course will show all degrees of clients an introduction to CSS3, working with page designs, understanding of the CSS box model, using backgrounds and colors, working with tables and lists, web typography, and dynamic CSS3 properties.

According to Glassdoor, the national average pay for front-end designers is over $75,000. In business sectors where the opposition for top tech ability is furious, the average compensation can move above $100,000.

Course Objective:

- Three Ways to Insert CSS
- Introduction to CSS
- Color
- Measurement Units
- Fonts & Text
- Links
- Lists
- Classes & IDs
- The Box Model
- CSS Resources & Reference
- Float
- DIV intro
- Border and Padding
- DIV trick
- Overflow Scroll
- Centering DIVs
- Floating DIVs
- DIV Layout Method
- Create a DIV Layout
- ID's
- Vertical Expanding DIVs

Audience:

The essential audience for this course is an individual who needs to begin or upgrade their profession in web improvement and website design.

Prerequisites:

There are no requirements to take this online course however it expected that understudies taking this course already have essential information on HTML/HTML5.

Course Outline:

Intro to CSS

- Introduction
- How CSS Works
- CSS Set Up
- Redefine Body
- Redefine h1 & h2
- Redefine td & img
- Creating Classes
- Setting Padding
- Background Images
- No-Repeat Bkg
- External Styles
- Inline Style
- Using Span
- Designing with CSS
- Introduction

Design with CSS

- Float
- DIV intro
- Border and Padding
- DIV trick
- Overflow Scroll
- Centering DIVs
- Floating DIVs
- DIV Layout Method
- Create a DIV Layout
- ID's
- Vertical Expanding DIVs