

PHP Development with the Laravel 4 Framework

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 3 Hours

About the course:

Searching for that ideal PHP system to construct incredible sites with? Attempt Laravel 4 and we're certain you'll be snared.

This course shows you how to make an authenticate framework for a site. Essential information on PHP writing computer programs is required for this course.

What Is Laravel?

Laravel is an open-source, free PHP web application system, intended for the improvement of MVC web applications. Laravel is introduced under the license of MIT, with its source code facilitated on GitHub.

As per a December 2014 review on the PHP structure's ubiquity, Laravel is recorded as one of the most encouraging PHP systems for 2015. Its designers have a middle compensation of $61,905 yearly.

Audience:

The essential crowd for this course is an individual who needs to build up a site-dependent on PHP.

Pre-requisites:

Basics of PHP language.

Course Outline:

- Introduction
- Build an Authorization System with the Laravel PHP Framework