

How to Build a CMS with PHP

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 30 Min

About this course:

This course will prove as highly resourceful. The course will teach you and guide you in every step regarding the designing of a functional content management system.

Valuable job skills:

CMS is a part of web development skillset, and thus, is in a very high demand of the market. It is important that you attain a training in a skill that will play a purpose in your life as well as help you in the long run of your career.

Audience:

This course has been primarily designed for those who are eager to begin and develop their career as a PHP developer.

Requirements:

It is important that you have the fundamental knowledge of PHP.

Course Outline:

- Introduction to the Course
- How to Build a Content Management System with PHP