Windows 7 Advanced: Introduction

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 1 Hour

About this course:

Windows 7 is one the advanced version of Microsoft Windows. Microsoft Windows is an operating system for computers. This course, Microsoft Windows 7 Advanced: Introduction Course, is meant to give you little bit of experience with Windows. It is preferable if it is Windows 7. This course is the short version of the Windows 7: Advanced course.

On average, an IT Help Desk Technician earns $43,835 per annum.

Learning objectives:

The course has the following learning objectives:

- Understanding of user accounts
- Understanding of devices and printers

Audience:

Any student with an academic background can take this course.

Requirements:

 The only requirement for this course is to have a properly operating Windows 7 OS.

Suggested pre-taken courses:

- Windows 7: Basic

Course Outline:

- User Accounts
- Devices and Printers