

Troubleshooting Microsoft Exchange Server 2016

Modality: Self-Paced Learning

Duration: 16 Hours

SUBSCRIPTION: Learn, Master, Master Plus

About this course

In this training course, you will learn how to troubleshoot the various components of Microsoft Exchange Server 2016.

The 2016 update of Microsoft Exchange Server brought a new set of technologies, features, and services to Exchange Server - the messaging platform that provides email, scheduling, and tools for custom collaboration and messaging service applications.

In this course, you'll explore client access connectivity, mailbox database issues, transport troubleshooting, and the underlying details of hybrid configurations of Exchange.

Course Objective:

- How to identify issues with Client Access Services
- Troubleshooting Mailbox databases
- Fix Transport Service issues
- Managing hybrid, Federation, and other components

Audience:

- Troubleshooters

Prerequisite:

- There are no prerequisite required for this course

Course Outline:

Module 01 | Troubleshoot Exchange Client Access Services

- Troubleshoot Connectivity
- Troubleshoot Backend Components
- Troubleshoot Remote Client Access And Coexistence
- Review Questions

Module 02 | Troubleshoot Exchange Mailbox Database Issues

- Troubleshoot Database Performance And Failures

- Monitor And Troubleshoot DAGs
- Troubleshoot Advanced DAG Components
- Review Questions

Module 03 | Troubleshoot Exchange Transport

- Troubleshooting With Logs
- Troubleshooting Mail Flow
- Troubleshooting Advanced Transport Issues
- Review Questions

Module 04 | Troubleshooting Hybrid Federation And Other Components

- Troubleshooting Other Components
- Troubleshooting Hybrid And Federation
- Review Questions

Launch Lab

- Launch Lab

Final Exam

- Final Exam?