

Windows 10 Features for a Mobile Workforce: Managing and Maintaining Devices in the Enterprise

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 12 Hours

About this course:

Study to manage application deployments and Windows 10 desktop as well as data service environments and cloud-based applications for the medium-to-huge enterprise.

This course is on number three out of four courses in the Features of Windows 10 for a Mobile Workforce XSeries, which has been made to assist you with getting ready for Exam of MS certification 70-697: Configuring Windows Devices.

Course Objective:

1. Usage of PowerShell 5.0
2. Usage of Remote Assistance
3. User Experience Virtualization (UE-V)
4. Configuring and Installing client Hyper-V
5. Using and Understanding the Services of Remote Desktop

Targeted Audience:

- Programmers
- IT support administrator

Prerequisite:

- Involvement with Windows desktop maintenance, administration, and troubleshooting.
- Introductory-level information of Microsoft Intune and Active Directory.
- Basic understanding and experience of networking technologies for Windows.
- Students can take this test and meet the requirements by getting equal information and abilities through useful experience as a Windows device system administrator or a Windows device support technician.

Course Outline:

Module 1

- Module 1
- BASH born again on Windows 10
- Group Policy
- Module 1 Labs
- Comments on Module 1

Module 2

- Module Overview
- Lesson 1
- Lesson 2
- Lesson 3

Module 3

- Module Overview
- Lesson 1
- Lesson 2
- Lesson 3
- Module 3 Labs

Student Assessment

- Assessment Questions?