

Windows Support Essentials: Configuration

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 16 Hours

About this course:

This computer science course has a duration of 16 hours with intermediate difficulty level. This course will teach you on the methods of aiding the installation processes related to Windows 10. You will get to learn on the methods of regulating storage matters, files, and printers along with ways of configuring network connectivity for Windows 10.

This course will also teach you on the matters of regulating the authorization and authentication of users. This course is part of a series of support focused Windows courses. The course has been specifically designed for professionals who are working in IT Support Role.

Learning objectives:

The course has the following learning objectives:

- Configuring networking for Windows 10
- Regulating storage matters for Windows 10
- Configuring data access and usage in Windows 10
- Configuring remote management in Windows 10
- Regulating authorization and authentication

Audience:

The course has been specifically designed for IT support officers.

Requirements:

This course you to have completed the course, Windows Support Essentials: Installation, before taking this one.

Course Outline:

Configure Networking

- Networking in Windows 10
- Configure IP Network Connectivity
- Implement Name Resolution
- Implement Wireless Network Connectivity
- Overview of Remote Access
- Module Assessment Exam

Configure Storage

- Overview of Storage Options
- Managing Disks, Partitions, and Volumes
- Maintaining Disks and Volumes
- Managing Storage Spaces
- Module Assessment Exam

Configure Data Access and Usage

- Overview of File Systems
- Configuring and Managing File Access
- Configuring and Managing Shared Folders
- Managing Printers
- Remote Management
- Module Assessment Exam

Configure Authorization and Authentication

- Using Security Settings to Mitigate Threats
- Configuring User Account Control
- Implementing Device Registration
- Authentication
- Module Assessment Exam

Course Conclusion

- Final Exam
- Graded Lab: Managing Storage
- Graded Lab: Managing Files and Printers?