

Inclusive Speaker Orientation

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 2 Hours

About this course:

The Inclusive Speaker Orientation course is a collaboration between The Linux Foundation and the National Center for Women & Information Technology (NCWIT). The course contains three short modules designed to provide an essential background knowledge and practical skills to promote inclusivity in presentations, messaging and other communications. Module one will familiarize you with the facts about diversity in tech, the importance of diversity for innovation, and the basics of unconscious and societal bias. Module two will teach you how to recognize the different ways unconscious bias presents itself in technical environments. And module three applies this research-based content to the challenge of becoming a more inclusive speaker – with practical tips, tools, and examples you can use right away.

Audience:

- Inclusive speakers

Prerequisite:

- There are no prerequisites required for this course

Course Outline:

- Module 1: Diversity, Inclusion and Unconscious Bias
- Module 2: Forms of Unconscious Bias
- Module 3: Inclusive Speaking and Presenting