Document Generated: 12/18/2025

Learning Style: On Demand

Technology:

Difficulty: Beginner

Course Duration: 1 Hour

Introduction to Configuration Management with Puppet

About this course:

This course discusses on the topic of configuring management using Puppet. This course has been designed on the topic of Configuration Management with Puppet (DO405), which has been made for system administrators and cloud administrators. The course has been designed for learning for those workforce professionals who want to incorporate the Puppet, that is connected with Red Hat products, in operations atmosphere or a cloud computing atmosphere. It has the duration of one hour so it is a quick course to finish. The difficulty level is beginner which makes it a really easy course and can be finished productively in an hour only.

Audience:

This course has been designed for and is suitable for the IT professionals and DevOps engineers who are intending to incorporate the Puppet in operations atmosphere or a cloud computing atmosphere.

Requirements:

This course has no prior requirements for the learning.

Course Outline:

- Introduction to Configuration Management with Puppet