DevOps Organizational Models Design

Modality: On Demand

Duration: 1 Hour

About this Course:

The integration of DevOps into an organization's infrastructure promotes the notion of bringing cultural change in the overall structure of a business and teams in an organization. This is achieved by developing and designing organizational models encompassing of a cross-functional team working to achieve higher standards of operations, assurance, quality, development, and management.

Course Objectives:

The core objective of this course is to help professionals learn the art of integrating DevOps solutions into the organization and designing premium organizational models. Professionals will learn the art of bringing a positive cultural shift and understand the influence of DevOps Organizational models on organizations and teams' structure.

Audience:

This course is designed for professionals and students who want to learn the basics of designing organizational models with DevOps.

Prerequisites:

There are no prerequisites for this course and candidates must have a keen interest in learning DevOps Organizational Models Design.

Course Outline:

- DevOps Organizational Models Design