Windows Operating System Fundamentals: MTA Exam 98-349 (MS-40349)

Modality: Virtual Classroom

Duration: 3 Days

About the course:

If you are preparing for the Microsoft Technology Associate Exam 98-349 then this 3 day long course is ideal for you. It has all the topics found in the Microsoft Official Academic Course (MOAC). This is an updated version of the course in accordance with Windows 10. You will learn a variety of topics which include how to configure an operating system, how to install and update client systems, how the maintenance of an operating system works. You will also learn about managing things like files, folders and devices.

Aims

- Learning the installation and upgrading of client systems
- Managing applications, files, folders and devices
- Understanding the configuration and maintenance of operating systems.

Targeted Audience:

Anyone who is preparing for the Microsoft Technology Associate Exam 98-349 and is looking to have an understating of how the Microsoft technology works in order to start a career in a related field.

Prerequisites:

There are none

Course Outline:

Module 1:

- Installing and Upgrading Client Systems

Module 2:

- Understanding Operating System Configurations

Module 3:

- Understanding Native Applications, Tools, Mobility, and Remote Management and Assistance

Module 4:

- Managing Applications, Services, and Disks

Module 5:

- Managing Devices

Module 6:

- Understanding File and Print Sharing

Module 7:

- Maintaining, Updating, and Protecting Windows 10

Module 8:

- Understanding Backup and Recovery Methods